ADDICTION RECOVERY

TURNING POINT, THE: BREAKING THE CYCLE OF ADDICTION AND INCARCERATION

By Vincent Hayden

This compelling program was developed for male clients who are dealing with alcohol or other drug addiction. It includes interviews with African American men in different stages of recovery and reintegration, along with straight talk from counselors, community activists, a neighborhood pastor, and a drug court judge. All echo the same message: in order to change, these men must give up not only alcohol and other drugs but also their unhealthy lifestyles.

Viewers will learn strategies to create a healthy environment, find positive support, overcome shame and guilt, rebuild self-esteem, identify triggers, avoid relapse, and ensure that core beliefs and values align with positive goals. While this program features African American men in an urban environment, the information shown applies to all men in recovery. This program can be used alone or as part of the Hazelden Community Corrections Program.

ADVANCED NURSING/ CRITICAL CARE SKILLS

DIABETES: PHYSIOLOGY AND PATHOPHYSIOLOGY

This series begins with the normal physiology of glucose regulation then delves into both types 1 and 2 diabetes, Metabolic Syndrome, and pre-diabetes. Each of these states is described in detail with emphasis on their pathophysiology, risk factors, diagnostic criteria, signs and symptoms, and related complications. Various methods of glucose monitoring are explored, including self-monitoring with a standard glucose meter and use of the new continuous glucose monitoring system. Assessments such as hemoglobin A1C, average blood glucose, estimated average glucose, 1, 5 anhydroglucitol, and urine for ketones are outlined with information about the rationale for their use and testing schedules, and normal and abnormal values. Finally hypoglycemia, including hypoglycemia unawareness, and hyperglycemic events such as diabetic ketoacidosis and hyperosmolar hyperglycemic state are reviewed. The seven programs provide a wealth of information for physicians, nurses, and other healthcare providers working with individuals with diabetes, and may be used for patient education.

DIABETES: PHYSIOLOGY AND PATHOPHYSIOLOGY - PATHOPHYSIOLOGY OF METABOLIC SYNDROME AND PRE-DIABETES

This program focuses on two conditions which put individuals at risk for the development of type 2 diabetes. The first is Metabolic Syndrome, whose definition and cause are not completely clear. Therefore, criteria for diagnosis as developed by World Health Organization (WHO), the National Cholesterol Education Program – Adult Panel – III (NCEP – ATP –III), and the International Diabetes Federation (IDF) are all included. In addition, several theories about the cause of the syndrome – including insulin resistance and hormonal influences – are explored. Furthermore, treatment protocols such as exercise, weight loss, and diet are explained. The second condition is pre-diabetes. Risk factors and diagnostic criteria for this state are listed. Techniques to reduce the chance of this state from progressing into type 2 diabetes are also discussed.

AFRICA

AFRICA RISING

By Paula Heredia

Every day, six thousand girls from the Horn of Africa to the sub-Saharan nations are subjected to female genital mutilation (FGM). With little more than fierce determination and deep love for their communities, brave African activists are leading a formidable and fearless grassroots movement to end five thousand years of FGM. This extraordinary and powerful film is the first to focus on African solutions to FGM, presenting an insightful look at the frontlines of a quiet revolution taking the continent by storm.

Beautifully directed by Emmy Award-winning filmmaker Paula Heredia, AFRICA RISING travels through remote villages in Burkina Faso, Kenya, Mali, Somalia and Tanzania, weaving together dynamic footage and the poignant stories of girls personally affected by FGM to show how African women and men are putting an end to this human rights violation. From working with circumcisers to lay down their knives and engaging the police to implement the law to honing leadership skills in girls, these determined activists have been working tirelessly for years to creatively and resourcefully conceptualize a broad-based but little-known anti-FGM movement. AFRICA RISING paints an intimate portrait of courageous individuals with dignity and strength, whose passion for justice shows that individuals can change the course of history.

Review

- "An inspiring and hopeful film. Despite the deep sadness I felt for these girls, the good news is that the grassroots movement is strong and leading the global fight against female genital mutilation to save each and every girl." - Edwidge Danticat, author

FRESH

By Ana Sofia Joanes

Our current industrial method of food production is increasingly viewed as an unsustainable system, destructive to the environment and public health. But what is the alternative?

Fresh profiles the farmers, thinkers, and business people across the nation who are at the forefront of re-inventing food production in America. With a strong commitment to sustainability, they are changing how farms are run, how the land is cared for, and how food is distributed. Their success demonstrates that a new paradigm based on sustainable practices can be profitable and a model for our food system, if people choose to support it.

Fresh opens with a short summary of the problems and consequences of industrialized food production, then focuses primarily on the individuals who are creating new approaches to address environmental, health, and economic challenges throughout the food chain.

Joel Salatin is a world-famous sustainable farmer and entrepreneur who, by observing nature, devised a rotational grazing system for his animals that heals the land while making his operations many times more profitable than his conventional farming neighbors.

Will Allen, a former pro basketball player and recipient of a Macarthur "Genius Award", is now one of the most influential leaders of the urban farming movement. He teaches people in the inner city the value of healthy food and how to grow their own.

David Ball saw his family-run supermarket and a once-thriving local farming community dying with the rise of Walmart and other big chains. So he reinvented his business, partnering with area farmers to sell locally-grown food at an affordable price. His plan has brought the local economy back to life.

Fresh also features a farmer in Iowa who illustrates the struggles family farmers face, a hog farmer in Missouri who stopped using antibiotics on his pigs, and commentary by noted food expert and author Michael Pollan.

Reviews

- "FRESH is just that--an upbeat and wonderfully fresh look at our food system and how to make it work better for the health of humans and the planet. It's a must see for everyone who eats." - Marion Nestle, Paulette Goddard Professor, Department of Nutrition, Food Studies, and Public Health, New York University
- "We all know about the problems with the American food system, but what about the solutions? FRESH is a bracing, even exhilarating look at the whole range of efforts underway to renovate the way we grow food and feed ourselves." - Michael Pollan, Author, In Defense of Food
- "Absolutely first-rate...The film is not a preach-fest; it's an informative, inspirational, swiftly-edited and beautifully scored movie. What the doc does best is demonstrate... that nature's own ways of doing things - nature's food chain, nature's circle of life - is, ultimately, the best treatment of land and livestock." - Moving Pictures Magazine

ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

CLINICAL INNOVATORS, THE: ADOLESCENT DRUG ABUSE

By Howard Liddle

In this program, Dr. Howard Liddle, director of the University of Miami Center for Treatment Research on Adolescent Drug Abuse, speaks to the growing body of best practices of adolescent programming in treatment and juvenile justice. In his discussion of best practices in the field to help clinicians keep current on new developments, Dr. Liddle reviews evidence-based programs and focuses on the core ideas and clinical methods of family-based interventions, especially Multidimensional Family Therapy.

His dynamic presentation, along with vivid graphics, helps viewers understand the breakdown of the complex ideas of new adolescent approaches and define in manageable terms the treatment of teen drug problems. He reviews core concepts, major adolescent research, and clinical practice, including areas of neurobiology, co-occurring disorders, and juvenile justice. His ideas will help you understand

- how to work more effectively with teens' families and environments
- to minimize the risks and maximize the protective factors in adolescent lives.
- multidimensional family therapy in systems of care for drug involved adolescents, including community-based, treatment, mental health, or juvenile justice.
- how extensive structural changes well passed puberty in the teens brain impact their drug abuse, treatment, and recovery.

CLINICAL INNOVATORS, THE: NEUROBIOLOGY OF ADDICTION - A NEW PERSPECTIVE

By Carlton Erickson

Continuing revelations about the human brain are transforming our approaches to medical treatment, education, and human development. In this guide, Dr. Carlton Erickson, director of the Addiction Science Research and Education Center at the University of Texas, writes not only a "brain science 101" text, but helps explain how developments in neurobiology call for basic changes in the very ways that addiction professionals discuss, define, and treat chemical dependence. In an easy-to-understand language, Dr. Erickson renders the complex neuroscience of dependence in a clear and refreshing approach to facilitate understanding and use in treatment and recovery. This guide brings the hidden world of neurotransmitters, axons, receptors, vesicles, synapses, and neuroscience to light as an educational tool for clinicians to use with their clients.

BIODIVERSITY

DIVISION STREET

By Eric Bendick

Roads are the largest human artifact on the planet; they have fragmented wild landscapes and the wildlife that lives within them, ushered in the 'age of urban sprawl,' and challenged our sense of community. As the transportation crisis grows, a new generation of ecologists, engineers, planners and citizens are working to transform the future of the American road.

Shot in stunning locations throughout North America -- including Banff National Park, Glacier National Park, Yellowstone, and the Everglades -- Division Street takes us on a road-trip that looks at the promise of wildlife corridors, the potential for 'greening' our highway system, and the fusion of high-tech engineering with the best and brightest environmental research happening today.

America's road network was largely created before the rise of modern ecology. Now, with greater concern for the environment, the film asks, how do we balance those concerns with our ongoing transportation needs?

Among those featured are:

Dr. Richard Forman, Prof of Landscape Ecology, Harvard University; Dr. Marty Main, Professor of Wildlife Ecology,

University of Florida; and Linda Chapin, Director of the Metropolitan Center for Regional Studies, University of Central Florida.

- "A remarkable film about the inroads we have made - figuratively and literally - across the landscape. The paving of natural habitat in every direction, has both enabled us to move at will and marginalized and/or isolated all other land-based animals into the segregated pockets our roads have created for them. At once a road-trip and field experiment, this film is as wonderful to watch and enjoy as it is eye opening." - Blue Planet Film Festival

- "Division Street [takes] us on a road trip that visits the engineers, ecologists and others who are attempting to transform the future of US roads and are shaping the emerging green transportation movement. The film matches thoughtful commentary with some striking photography, adventurous editing and a good, well-matched soundtrack to deliver an entertaining and thought-provoking experience." - Reel Earth Film Festival, New Zealand

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

TURNING POINT, THE: BREAKING THE CYCLE OF ADDICTION AND INCARCERATION

By Vincent Hayden

This compelling program was developed for male clients who are dealing with alcohol or other drug addiction. It includes interviews with African American men in different stages of recovery and reintegration, along with straight talk from counselors, community activists, a neighborhood pastor, and a drug court judge. All echo the same message: in order to change, these men must give up not only alcohol and other drugs but also their unhealthy lifestyles.

Viewers will learn strategies to create a healthy environment, find positive support, overcome shame and guilt, rebuild self-esteem, identify triggers, avoid relapse, and ensure that core beliefs and values align with positive goals. While this program features African American men in an urban environment, the information shown applies to all men in recovery. This program can be used alone or as part of the Hazelden Community Corrections Program.

ECOLOGY

DIVISION STREET

By Eric Bendick

Roads are the largest human artifact on the planet; they have fragmented wild landscapes and the wildlife that lives within them, ushered in the 'age of urban sprawl,' and challenged our sense of community. As the transportation crisis grows, a new generation of ecologists, engineers, planners and citizens are working to transform the future of the American road.

Shot in stunning locations throughout North America -- including Banff National Park, Glacier National Park, Yellowstone, and the Everglades -- Division Street takes us on a road-trip that looks at the promise of wildlife corridors, the potential for 'greening' our highway system, and the fusion of high-tech engineering with the best and brightest environmental research happening today.

America's road network was largely created before the rise of modern ecology. Now, with greater concern for the environment, the film asks, how do we balance those concerns with our ongoing transportation needs?

Among those featured are:

Dr. Richard Forman, Prof of Landscape Ecology, Harvard University; Dr. Marty Main, Professor of Wildlife Ecology, University of Florida; and Linda Chapin, Director of the Metropolitan Center for Regional Studies, University of Central Florida.

- "A remarkable film about the inroads we have made - figuratively and literally - across the landscape. The paving of natural habitat in every direction, has both enabled us to move at will and marginalized and/or isolated all other land-based animals into the segregated pockets our roads have created for them. At once a road-trip and field experiment, this film is as wonderful to watch and enjoy as it is eye opening." - Blue Planet Film Festival

- "Division Street [takes] us on a road trip that visits the engineers, ecologists and others who are attempting to transform the future of US roads and are shaping the emerging green transportation movement. The film matches thoughtful commentary with some striking photography, adventurous editing and a good, well-matched soundtrack to deliver an entertaining and thought-provoking experience." - Reel Earth Film Festival, New Zealand

FAMILY RELATIONS

EL GENERAL

By Natalia Almada

Past and present collide in this extraordinarily crafted film when filmmaker Natalia Almada (ALL WATER HAS A PERFECT MEMORY), winner of the US Directing Award: Documentary at the Sundance Film Festival, brings to life audio recordings she inherited from her grandmother. These recordings feature Alicia Calles's reminiscences about her own father—Natalia's great-grandfather—General Plutarco Elias Calles, a revolutionary general who became president of Mexico in 1924. In his time, Calles was called "El Bolsheviq" and "El Jefe Maximo," or "the foremost chief." Today, he remains one of Mexico's most controversial figures, illustrating both the idealism and injustices of the country's history.

Through Alicia's voice, this visually stunning and stylistically innovative film moves between the conflicting memories of a daughter grappling with her remembrances of her father and his violent public legacy. Combining meticulously edited audio, haunting photographs, archival newsreels, and old Hollywood films with an original evocative soundtrack, sweeping footage of modern-day Mexico City, and interviews with today's working poor, EL GENERAL is a poetic and cinematic exploration of historical judgment and a complex and arresting portrait of a family and country living under the shadows of the past.

FOOD / NUTRITION

FRESH

By Ana Sofia Joanes

Our current industrial method of food production is increasingly viewed as an unsustainable system, destructive to the environment and public health. But what is the alternative?

Fresh profiles the farmers, thinkers, and business people across the nation who are at the forefront of re-inventing food production in America. With a strong commitment to sustainability, they are changing how farms are run, how the land is cared for, and how food is distributed. Their success demonstrates that a new paradigm based on sustainable practices can be profitable and a model for our food system, if people choose to support it.

Fresh opens with a short summary of the problems and consequences of industrialized food production, then focuses primarily on the individuals who are creating new approaches to address environmental, health, and economic challenges throughout the food chain.

Joel Salatin is a world-famous sustainable farmer and entrepreneur who, by observing nature, devised a rotational grazing system for his animals that heals the land while making his operations many times more profitable than his conventional farming neighbors.

Will Allen, a former pro basketball player and recipient of a Macarthur "Genius Award", is now one of the most influential leaders of the urban farming movement. He teaches people in the inner city the value of healthy food and how to grow their own.

David Ball saw his family-run supermarket and a once-thriving local farming community dying with the rise of Walmart and other big chains. So he reinvented his business, partnering with area farmers to sell locally-grown food at an affordable price. His plan has brought the local economy back to life.

Fresh also features a farmer in Iowa who illustrates the struggles family farmers face, a hog farmer in Missouri who stopped using antibiotics on his pigs, and commentary by noted food expert and author Michael Pollan.

Reviews

- "FRESH is just that--an upbeat and wonderfully fresh look at our food system and how to make it work better for the health of humans and the planet. It's a must see for everyone who eats." - Marion Nestle, Paulette Goddard Professor, Department of Nutrition, Food Studies, and Public Health, New York University
- "We all know about the problems with the American food system, but what about the solutions? FRESH is a bracing, even exhilarating look at the whole range of efforts underway to renovate the way we grow food and feed ourselves." - Michael Pollan, Author, In Defense of Food

- "Absolutely first-rate...The film is not a preach-fest; it's an informative, inspirational, swiftly-edited and beautifully scored movie. What the doc does best is demonstrate... that nature's own ways of doing things - nature's food chain, nature's circle of life - is, ultimately, the best treatment of land and livestock." - Moving Pictures Magazine

FORESTS

TEAKETTLE EXPERIMENT, THE: FIRE AND FOREST HEALTH

The film documents the Teakettle Experiment, a ten-year collaboration of forest managers and scientists from diverse disciplines that investigated the effects of prescribed fire and forest thinning on restoring forest health.

A century of fire suppression has significantly changed many western forests, leaving them overcrowded and susceptible to disease, pests, and catastrophic crown fires that endanger lives and property.

Experts agree that reducing fuel loads in our forests lessen the chances of forest devastation. But until the Teakettle Experiment, deciding which method for doing so remained controversial.

With a multi-disciplinary team to study the relative effects of prescribed fire and thinning, the Teakettle Experiment collected invaluable information on the benefits and detriments of each option. The result is documented in this DVD, which also contains multiple videos, resources, reference materials, instructional materials, and website links.

The principal feature on the DVD is the film, "Fire and Forest Health," which outlines the problems in our forests, and then reveals how the experiment was conducted over ten years.

Review

- "The Teakettle Experiment: Fire and Forest Health is an excellent introduction into the world of silviculture (forest management). Probably the most useful part is the enormous number of resources available on the disc, including downloadable publications, scientific articles, and web sites. Particularly useful to instructors are listings of research questions and experiments that students can investigate. It is appropriate for high school and college-age students." -The American Biology Teacher

POOJARI'S DAUGHTER, THE

By Gillian Goslinga

In an informal survey of some 300 South Indian Hindu temples in the late 1990s, only four female poojaris or priestesses were counted. This is an intimate portrait of one such priestess, Rajathamma, who spiritually inherited from her father at his death the post of "periya poojari" or big priest. Weaving dramatic footage of the rituals and temple life at the non Brahmanical Hindu temple with Rajathamma's moving narration of her process, the documentary captures the conflict between her calling to serve her god and her attachment to her family.

GLOBAL FEMINISM

AFRICA RISING

By Paula Heredia

Every day, six thousand girls from the Horn of Africa to the sub-Saharan nations are subjected to female genital mutilation (FGM). With little more than fierce determination and deep love for their communities, brave African activists are leading a formidable and fearless grassroots movement to end five thousand years of FGM. This extraordinary and powerful film is the first to focus on African solutions to FGM, presenting an insightful look at the frontlines of a quiet revolution taking the continent by storm.

Beautifully directed by Emmy Award-winning filmmaker Paula Heredia, AFRICA RISING travels through remote villages in Burkina Faso, Kenya, Mali, Somalia and Tanzania, weaving together dynamic footage and the poignant stories of girls personally affected by FGM to show how African women and men are putting an end to this human rights violation. From working with circumcisers to lay down their knives and engaging the police to implement the law to honing leadership skills in girls, these determined activists have been working tirelessly for years to creatively and resourcefully conceptualize a broad-based but little-known anti-FGM movement. AFRICA RISING paints an intimate portrait of courageous individuals with dignity and strength, whose passion for justice shows that individuals can change the course of history.

HISTORY

END OF SILENCE, THE

By Martin Jonsson and Pontus Hjorthen

The End of Silence is a riveting film made by two long-time friends from Sweden, reunited in Spain to explore that part of Spain's recent past about which the Spanish themselves refuse to speak.

The Spanish Civil War may be decades old, but the wounds and grievances from the conflict continue to haunt Spain. What's more, after decades of oppression and summary executions, General Francisco Franco — the former fascist leader of Spain — still seems to hold a revered place among many in Spanish culture.

As young children, the filmmakers remember their own prime minister, Olof Palme, promising that the world would judge General Franco and his fascist regime harshly for its murderous brutality. But they find that long after the civil war and Franco's passing in 1975, Spain is unwilling to confront its tortured past, leaving relatives of victims on both sides to suffer.

Enter Mari Carmen Espana, whose grandfather was executed by the fascists 70 years ago. She is determined to find the unmarked site of his execution and extinguish the anonymity of his death through official government recognition and proper burial. She comes to symbolize the broad social reconciliation movement within Spain, culminating in The Historical Memory Law passed by the Congress of Deputies to redress the grievances of relatives of victims.

The End of Silence is the story of what happens when a country tries to amputate its past. It is also the uplifting story of what happens when a country takes the courageous step of reconciliation — when it accepts the burden of truth to start the process of national healing.

This is a film of deep pathos and great meaning as many societies work to resolve the ghosts of past conflicts.

MASS MEDIA & POPULAR

ARRESTING ANA

By Lucie Schwartz

Sarah is a French college student who runs a "pro-Ana" blog, part of a global online community of young women sharing tips on living with anorexia. Valerie Boyer is a passionate French National Assembly legislator who is proposing a groundbreaking bill that aims to ban these online forums, issuing hefty fines and two-year prison sentences to their members. Complex, eye-opening, and extremely timely, ARRESTING ANA is the first film on a burgeoning movement that promotes self-starvation.

Pro-Ana websites are found in countries around the world, but France is the first to suggest regulating them. Combining in-depth interviews with medical and academic experts with video diaries by Sarah—to whom "Ana," short for anorexia, is a friend, support system, and motivation to stay alive—ARRESTING ANA offers unprecedented access into anorexia's hidden underground and looks for effective solutions to ending this serious disease.

Featuring shocking quotes and images from pro-Ana sites and an engrossing soundtrack, this well-made documentary is crucial for not only students and teachers of media studies, but also provides important insight for psychologists, social workers, sociologists, and educators on who controls women's body issues, how young people are interpreting eating disorders today, and how issues of legality and freedom of speech are contested in a new media landscape.

RELIGION

POOJARI'S DAUGHTER, THE

By Gillian Goslinga

In an informal survey of some 300 South Indian Hindu temples in the late 1990s, only four female poojaris or priestesses were counted. This is an intimate portrait of one such priestess, Rajathamma, who spiritually inherited from her father at his death the post of "periya poojari" or big priest. Weaving dramatic footage of the rituals and temple life at the non Brahmanical Hindu temple with Rajathamma's moving narration of her process, the documentary captures the conflict between her calling to serve her god and her attachment to her family.

SOLUTIONS

END OF SILENCE, THE

By Martin Jonsson and Pontus Hjorthen

The End of Silence is a riveting film made by two long-time friends from Sweden, reunited in Spain to explore that part of Spain's recent past about which the Spanish themselves refuse to speak.

The Spanish Civil War may be decades old, but the wounds and grievances from the conflict continue to haunt Spain. What's more, after decades of oppression and summary executions, General Francisco Franco — the former fascist leader of Spain — still seems to hold a revered place among many in Spanish culture.

As young children, the filmmakers remember their own prime minister, Olof Palme, promising that the world would judge General Franco and his fascist regime harshly for its murderous brutality. But they find that long after the civil war and Franco's passing in 1975, Spain is unwilling to confront its tortured past, leaving relatives of victims on both sides to suffer.

Enter Mari Carmen Espana, whose grandfather was executed by the fascists 70 years ago. She is determined to find the unmarked site of his execution and extinguish the anonymity of his death through official government recognition and proper burial. She comes to symbolize the broad social reconciliation movement within Spain, culminating in The Historical Memory Law passed by the Congress of Deputies to redress the grievances of relatives of victims.

The End of Silence is the story of what happens when a country tries to amputate its past. It is also the uplifting story of what happens when a country takes the courageous step of reconciliation — when it accepts the burden of truth to start the process of national healing.

This is a film of deep pathos and great meaning as many societies work to resolve the ghosts of past conflicts.

WILDERNESS

DIVISION STREET

By Eric Bendick

Roads are the largest human artifact on the planet; they have fragmented wild landscapes and the wildlife that lives within them, ushered in the 'age of urban sprawl,' and challenged our sense of community. As the transportation crisis grows, a new generation of ecologists, engineers, planners and citizens are working to transform the future of the American road.

Shot in stunning locations throughout North America -- including Banff National Park, Glacier National Park, Yellowstone, and the Everglades -- Division Street takes us on a road-trip that looks at the promise of wildlife corridors, the potential for 'greening' our highway system, and the fusion of high-tech engineering with the best and brightest environmental research happening today.

America's road network was largely created before the rise of modern ecology. Now, with greater concern for the environment, the film asks, how do we balance those concerns with our ongoing transportation needs?

Among those featured are:

Dr. Richard Forman, Prof of Landscape Ecology, Harvard University; Dr. Marty Main, Professor of Wildlife Ecology, University of Florida; and Linda Chapin, Director of the Metropolitan Center for Regional Studies, University of Central Florida.

- "A remarkable film about the inroads we have made - figuratively and literally - across the landscape. The paving of natural habitat in every direction, has both enabled us to move at will and marginalized and/or isolated all other land-based animals into the segregated pockets our roads have created for them. At once a road-trip and field experiment, this film is as wonderful to watch and enjoy as it is eye opening." - Blue Planet Film Festival

- "Division Street [takes] us on a road trip that visits the engineers, ecologists and others who are attempting to transform the future of US roads and are shaping the emerging green transportation movement. The film matches thoughtful commentary with some striking photography, adventurous editing and a good, well-matched soundtrack to deliver an entertaining and thought-provoking experience." - Reel Earth Film Festival, New Zealand

現在，台灣跟中國的距離，不再像以前那麼遙遠。因為民國 97 年 6 月 19 日，政府全面開放小三通，任何人只要有台灣護照跟台胞證，就可以從台灣出發，經由金門或馬祖，抵達福建的廈門、泉州或福州。這樣的轉變，正考驗著金門，一旦兩岸越來越緊密，金門要如何才不會被邊緣化？

我們的島 2009: 農村的生存遊戲

以往的台灣農村，是怎樣的景象？民國五十七年的新聞畫面，一群農民正在歡欣收割，當時的國軍投入助耕行列。旁白大聲說到：「一把把稻禾紛紛倒下，鐮刀的喇喇聲，打穀機的嚕嚕聲和大家的歡笑，譜成了最動聽的田野交響曲。」在穿插一段農村曲的音樂後，旁白又道：「二期稻穀預計每甲的收成，最高一萬一千多公斤，打破歷年紀錄。」

然而 2007 年 8 月出版的「江湖在哪裡？」，作家吳音寧在書中，落下了沈重嘆息，「歷史，輕輕踩過農人集體彎駝的背，像踏過稻浪和水面。」現在，拿出台灣農業的相關數據一看，是「農業產值占 GDP 不到 2%」、「農民平均年齡 53 歲」、「農家年平均收入不到 20 萬」、「台灣糧食整體自給率不足 32%」，經過短短四十年的光陰，才又剛剛踏進嶄新的 21 世紀，台灣農業的發展，卻越來越陷入絕境。我們很想知道，農民為什麼不再驕傲地耕種？農村脫離貧困的機會又在哪裡？農業還有剩餘價值？還能復活再生嗎？

我們的島 2009: 邁向能源轉換

台灣每年排放兩億六千萬噸的二氧化碳，其中將近一半，是來自火力電廠！政府雖然積極宣示節能減碳，要發展低碳能源與經濟，但矛盾的是，台電目前正積極計畫擴建包括台北縣的深澳、林口、以及高雄大林等三個火力發電廠。這些燃煤電廠的擴建計畫，會不會讓政府節能減碳的宣示，流為口號呢？

我們的島 2009: 灣寶西瓜保衛戰

三月中旬,打開電子信箱,收到一封信,上面提到台北大學廖本全老師的一句話:「台灣農村最能夠再生的地方。」廖老師口中的,就是苗栗縣後龍鎮的灣寶里。灣寶里,是一個典型的閩南農村聚落,農地大都為砂質土壤,排水性良好,早期種植西瓜、地瓜和花生等旱作。民國六十年代起,農委會陸續在此進行農地重劃與農水路劃設,當地開始出現水稻。

由於灣寶里農業生產環境優良、社區集體意識強烈,民國九十二年,文建會選定灣寶里,將其納入農業社區總體營造單位,同年到民國九十四年,經濟部中小企業處,連續三年進行地方產業輔導。民國九十五年,農委會接著辦理,苗栗縣農業資源空間整體發展計畫。長期經營下來,灣寶里不只为農業打出一片天空,更成為具備自主能力,無需事事期待政府補助的農業社區典範。

苗栗縣政府對在地的「關照」,卻造成農民的高度不安,因為縣府將與民間開發單位合作,在灣寶里推動「後龍科技園區」。雖然苗栗縣府強調該園區未來每年可以產生300億產值、三萬個就業機會,但此舉勢必會大面積徵收農地,大幅改寫灣寶里的生態、產業、人文與歷史發展。「後龍科技園區」開發計畫,有如一面明鏡,它反映出政府與人民的對立、工業與農業的競爭,也清楚地揭示著台灣未來發展的左右為難。

返家八千里 黑面琵鷺

- 全球首次記錄下黑琵人工繁育繁殖的完整過程

年復一年,黑面琵鷺南北往返,飛翔於大自然四季交替的召喚當中。面臨絕種危機的黑面琵鷺,每年總有超過一半會在秋天飛回台灣,冬天溫暖的家。這段八千里的遙遠旅程,訴說著一個為了求生存,而飛越艱難險阻的生命故事,以及一個回家的承諾。

黑面琵鷺是全球六種琵鷺之中,唯一瀕危、也是少數完全依賴東北亞棲地而生存的鳥種,全球只剩下兩千隻。牠們的存在,就像是亞洲沿岸生態環境健康的指標。無論在台灣、中國、南韓、北韓、或是日本,身處不同邦國疆界的人們,不管處在如何對立衝突、微妙尷尬的現實當中,因為牠們,而攜手合作。黑琵就像大自然的和平天使,穿越政治的疆界,傳達永續共存的訊息。

夢想之旅

「夢想之旅?水源畢旅金門行」這是一個從生活中長出來的課程,六年乙班的教室有一幅從學校到每個小朋友家的「心靈地圖」;在圖上,杜老師畫出每個孩子從家裡到學校上學的路,還親自帶孩子到每一個人的家裡走一走。

有一位上學期從金門來的轉學生方柔云,昔日導師邀請她和舊同學一起去廈門畢業旅行。雖然她不能成行,卻觸動班上同學到金門畢旅的想法。因此我們與家長、孩子討論,將「畢旅金門行」規劃在寒假及六下的教學活動中,成為我們共同的學習課程。杜老師把十年來在水源這塊土地生活的歌曲,錄製成「水源的孩子和杜老師」CD專輯,其中「水源的孩子」還成為水源國小的校歌。CD封面題字是由班上一位智能不足的孩子所寫,稚嫩的筆跡藏有一份生命的純真。封底則是十年前的學生智傑用毛筆所畫的「有歡笑也有悲傷、才是真正的學校」。每一首歌的背後都有杜老師和孩子的故事和生活點滴。因此CD專輯裡不僅有六年乙班的歌聲,還有十年來每一屆學生的聲音。

紀錄片

穿在中途島

每個人都要穿衣服鞋子。服飾表現了一個人的風格,也相當程度定位了一個人的社會關係。流行服飾從設計到生產,要穿越不同的國界。這個系列以全球化的觀點,透過六件衣服和鞋子,看到台灣的位置,位在整個產業的中途之地。台灣在早年曾經是紡織品、成衣和鞋業的輸出大國,許多人都經歷過家中堆滿布料的童年。這是我們非常重要的記憶,但這記憶還來不及訴說,便已經離開了這座島嶼。在重述這段回憶的同時,我們想提出的獨特觀點是:不能只在島內看台灣製造了什麼,還需要從外面看回來,看台灣對全球製造了什麼?也看全球製造了

台灣的什麼?

紀錄觀點: 路有多長

「路有多長」是導演湯湘竹回家三部曲的最後一部,延續回家的主旨,這一次,導演將鏡頭對準了一群在國民黨接收台灣之後,被帶往中國參加國共內戰的阿美族台籍兵。在山海交界的台東都蘭部落,導演湯湘竹認識了阿美族木雕藝術家希巨·蘇飛,得知在都蘭部落有一群被帶往中國,永遠消失的少年階級,延續導演對於回家三部曲的一貫主題,及身為外省第二代,瞭解父執輩那一代對於家鄉的感念,兩人遂以台東部落為起點,展開尋訪阿美族部落裡的台籍老兵,用影像紀錄這些被戰爭捲入的無奈人生。

在阿美族老兵身上,我們看到國族主義的荒謬,但「路有多長」的重點不在研究歷史、探討歷史功過,而是留在這個特別時代裡的平凡人物身影,紀錄他們的人生、他們的情感,希望觀眾記得曾有這樣一個年代,曾有這樣一群人存在,也希望能在這些逐漸凋零的老人身上,讓我們得到一些啟示。

誰來晚餐 2 : 龍鳳胎之家來賓 - 洪蘭

這是一個關於飲食的節目，但我們不只是一要做一個美食節目，而是想做一個關於人與人溝通的節目，藉由一位意外訪客的登門造訪，以及一頓家常晚餐，互相分享生命故事，即使是一些看起來可能不起眼的小故事。

這個節目的類型屬於時下頗為流行的「真人實境節目」(Reality TV)，但它不講眾取寵，也不會有太多刻意安排的橋段，有的是平凡人物的家常生活、生命中小小夢想的完成，以及名人卸下包裝與身段之後的真情流露。

誰來晚餐 2: 腦麻兒家庭來賓 - 陳美鳳

這是一個關於飲食的節目，但我們不只是一要做一個美食節目，而是想做一個關於人與人溝通的節目，藉由一位意外訪客的登門造訪，以及一頓家常晚餐，互相分享生命故事，即使是一些看起來可能不起眼的小故事。

這個節目的類型屬於時下頗為流行的「真人實境節目」(Reality TV)，但它不講眾取寵，也不會有太多刻意安排的橋段，有的是平凡人物的家常生活、生命中小小夢想的完成，以及名人卸下包裝與身段之後的真情流露。
